

Confidence intervals and point estimates for specified sub populations

Observed population sizes are presented as navy coloured points

